

We are the Success of the Season. No Mistake==WH ?

Because we have dug a well 270 feet deep where we get pure artesian water, fresh and free to all our customers, and we invite them when they wish a drink of pure water to come to our store. Come one, come all, it's fresh and pure. We cannot furnish you with whiskey: but we can give you the purest and best water you ever drank, FREE.

Because we have built a wagon yard and house in the rear of our store for our customers who live at a distance to sleep and keep their teams at night. We have troughs for 95 horses, mules and oxen to feed in, and a hydrant in the lot where you can get your water without any trouble. So bring your pine knots and cover along and we will furnish a good comfortable shelter for you to sleep under, pay you the very highest price for your cotton, chickens, eggs and all produce, sell you goods cheaper than any one. We bought them before the advance in prices, paid cash for them, got the discounts, and do sell them cheaper than any other merchant in town. Our wagon yard and house is free, and we want everybody to come and put up in it.

A trip in time may save a half dozen later on, i. e., we are closing out our stock of ladies jackets at 25 per cent below cost. We have too large a stock of them and are determined to sell them, hence this sacrifice. They are the greatest bargains ever offered in any place; nobby styles, truly beautiful, they are going fast, so come early and get first choice.

We have 500 pieces of pretty design, fast colors calicoes, which we are selling for 5c per yard—selling elsewhere for 6 and 6 1/4 cents—we bought them before the advance in cotton goods and are selling all our goods at low price cotton figures.

A store is valued for what it sells and how it sells. We aim to keep you in touch with the neatest and best dry goods. Our fall and winter stock is in its prime, so come and help gather the good things that are always on hand with us.

In 1892 Mr. A. L. Goldwater, who owns three retail drug stores in New York City, having learned of the great value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds, croup and whooping cough ordered a supply for his customers. It met with so much favor that he soon found it necessary to order more, and during the winter sold over two gross of the remedy. He says it gives the best satisfaction of any cough cure he has ever handled. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Harvey & Roby.

IT DON'T PAY US

To advertise something we haven't got. But it will pay you to examine our stock and get our prices before buying. See our Roller Tray Trunks for ladies—saves lifting. We are still headquarters for tailor made clothing.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father on the 11th, inst., Dr. C. E. Wilson to Miss Lula Crow, Rev. D. L. Wilson, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of that generous, genial gentleman, Mr. Mat Crow, of Beat 2. The amiable daughter who has ever been the delight of the family and loved by all her associates, leaves many sad hearts behind as she parts with the home of her childhood. But while some are made sad, others are made happy and glad.

The groom is the son of Rev. D. L. Wilson, a rising young physician of promise, with bright prospects lighting life's future pathway, surrounded by a host of confiding friends. While he has gained the hand of one of Attala's most deserving girls, he is in every way worthy of the confidence she has imposed in him. We predict for them a bright and happy future.

A FRIEND.

At the residence of the bride's parent, Rev. and Mrs. A R Hines, eleven miles North of Kosciusko, Dec. 18th, at 8 o'clock p. m., Presiding Elder, J. H. Mitchell officiating, Mr. J. Homer Gaddy and Miss Mozelle Hines.

ATTENDANTS.

Elmore Branch " Annie Holland
R A Clark " Nora Adams

The handsome groom is one of Attala's most promising young men, possessed of those qualities of high moral character that insures success of business and commands the respect of his associates, and whose family antecedents are all good, has indeed made a most judicious selection in the person of his charming bride who belongs to one of the oldest and best families in the county, and whose charms of person, mind, and heart, make her in every way worthy to be the wife of him whose name she now bears.

The young couple left here on the evening of the 19th for Martindale, Texas, their future home. THE STAR staff most heartily wishes that their progress through life may be one unbroken chain of happiness, and that their declining years may pass away like sunbeams on the dark blue sea.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John H. Conner, six miles North of Kosciusko, Dec. 12, 1895. Mr. W. B. Murff and Miss Lou B. Conner, Rev. A R. Hines officiating. To the young couple we extend our heartiest congratulations and hope that the union will be one of unalloyed bliss.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bogan, in Fentress on December 18th, Mr. W. C. Story and Miss Lovie Bogan, Rev. Mr. Goar officiating. To the young couple THE STAR extends its warmest congratulations, and wishes them a happy, prosperous married life.
